Thank you for applying for credit with IRL Supplies (2011) Ltd. It is our goal to process credit applications as quickly as possible. However delays related to incomplete applications, application errors and untimely credit reference replies are beyond our control and can extend the application process. We regret that 'urgent' applications are subject to those same potential delays. Should you need to have an order shipped immediately, we would be happy to process your payment on a credit card, cheque or bank transfer until such time as the credit review process is completed.
